FOREWORD

The Town Meeting is the most lucid example of pure democracy. It not only denotes democracy; it is democracy. It is democracy in action—strong, clear and simple. It is where all the men and women of one community stand together on even grounds of true equality. It is where every voice is guaranteed the right to speak. It is where no voice nor thought may be denied. It is where freedom bursts from the hearts of unshaved men. It is where justice leaps from the tongues of tall forms in overalls. It is where clear and sparkling ideas spring forth from the fountains of free minds. It is where the Negro stands and finds respect. It is where the Jew can speak his words. It is where practicality and simplicity are demanded. It is where conjecture and theory have no status.

Over three hundred years ago, the founders of New England established the first Town Meeting. They came to the log structures in the center of their isolated towns. They came with rifles, and heavy cloaks, and foot-warmers, and the flaming spirit of a new-found freedom. When day had ascended into the shadow-realm of night they came, bearing flickering lanterns—lanterns which lighted their way to the meeting houses, and which spread a bright golden beam across three thousand miles of dark wilderness.

Today, the Town Meeting is not widely accepted as the best form of town government. Towns have lost their identities; they have become vast, sprawling cities. Mayor-Council, Commission Plan, and City Managers are used as the various methods of governing these cities.

However, many towns throughout New England still assemble and execute the year's business in Town Meetings. Many of those who rise in Town Meetings today bear the same names as those in Town Meetings three hundred years ago. Today, the heart beats and the mind thinks in a different era, but still the same spirit presides—the earnest, sincere desire to keep the glass chimneys of the lantern unclouded, and keep the wick of democracy burning, ever, ever brighter. Having learned in the past four years the compelling necessity to preserve democracy, we shall guard the flame.

A Tribute

TO OUR FRIENDS AND ADVISERS

We, the Class of 1948, dedicate this the nineteenth volume of The Talisman to the teacher-friends who are pictured on this page. They, as a group, were our class advisers. They, as individuals, were occupants of secret places in our hearts.

Many are the seeds of thought which they have planted in the minds. It is our earnest hope that those seeds find fertile, deep soils in which to grow, so that in some distant Autumn Harvest-time, there may be reaped a rich and golden crop.

COMMUNITY LIFE

CITIZEN CONTESTS

At the end of the fiscal year, the citizens of Raiderdom assembled for the town meeting. The moderator was Principal Arthur M. Guild. Mr. Guild's impartiality and his earnest desire to make Rutland High School primarily a student's institution assured him of a highly respected place on the speakers' rostrum. Prior to hearing the annual reports of the Learned Gentry, Mr. Guild inaugurated the session of Town Meeting with the following:

ARTHUR M. GUILD, Principal

TO THE CLASS OF 1948:

You are to be congratulated upon earning your high school diploma. With it goes a certain degree of distinction, which carries with it greater responsibility toward your fellow men.

Your community and country have a right to expect more of you in economic, social and cultural attainments in return for their investment in you. I know that with your youth, idealism and enthusiasm you will do much toward creating a more stable, more tolerant and less disillusioned society.

ARTHUR M. GUILD,
Principal of Rutland High School.

HOMER B. ASHLAND, Superintendent

TO THE CLASS OF 1948:

You are to be congratulated as you approach the goal toward which your efforts of the last four years have been directed. The opportunities which you have enjoyed, now will lead quite naturally to still further opportunities and responsibilities. As you meet these always give your best—for in this way only can you enjoy a life rich in satisfaction to yourself and in service to your fellowmen.

The latter is my wish for each and everyone of you! You can and will make it come true.

HOMER B. ASHLAND,
Superintendent of Schools.

TO THE CLASS OF 1948:

I am grateful for the opportunity of sending a word of greeting to the young men and women in Rutland High School whom I had the privilege of serving briefly as their Superintendent of Schools.

While I was with you, I sensed your seriousness of purpose, your fine spirit of cooperation and your potentiality for usefulness as members of the community.

The world about you—the community in which you live, study, and work—no longer regards you as children; you are assuming the fuller stature of young manhood and womanhood. You face not only the possession of greater privileges, but the acceptance of the greater responsibilities of adulthood. As you come into these privileges and responsibilities, I commend to you the words of Henry VanDyke, who wrote:

"Four things a man must learn to do
If he would make his record true
To think without confusion clearly
To love his fellow-men sincerely
To act from honest motives purely
To trust in God and Heaven securely."

Please accept my best wishes for your future success and happiness.

National Honor Society

No honor conferred by the school excels that represented by the National Honor Society. It represents the fundamental objectives for which schools are instituted and gives recognition to those who have attained most nearly the desired ends. Other honors at the disposal of the school are only partial in the sense that they recognize specialized ability, skill or talent, but this Society looks upon education as a total product measured by the four dimensions of life. To exalt the four cardinal principles: Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service; and to hold these ever before the school as goals toward which all should strive, is the purpose of this Society.

This year, under the capable supervision of Miss Marie W. Johnson, Faculty Adviser, the group has functioned extremely well. Candy was sold by the members and volunteers at the school games. Two banquets were held at the Hotel Berwick; one was a Christmas party at which the alumni were present, and the second followed the annual induction ceremony in the spring. The officers were the four seniors elected in their Junior year, namely: President, George Ackley; Vice President, Mary Jean Burr; Secretary, Joan Mintzer; and Treasurer, Joan McKerley. The inductees were Seniors: Mary Gay Eddy, Darleyne Hart, Mary Ellen Hunt, David Newton, Ralph Shangraw; and Juniors: George Miller, George Peck, David Roe and Richard Roe.

President's Address

Tonight, we are celebrating our Class Night. In a few days Graduation, the culmination of twelve years' school work, will be upon us. But what happens after graduation? Many of us will be going into some kind of work. Others of this class will be entering college and perhaps there are some others who do not have any conception of what they are going to do after graduation. I think it is time for us to wake up and realize that what lies ahead for us in life is not going to be any "bed of roses." It is time for us to realize that the world does not owe us a living, but that we have to go out and earn a livelihood by working hard for it. When we think of the successful people in all walks of life today, it is difficult for us to find any who have not worked hard, year after year, to achieve the success that is theirs.

During the years we have spent in the elementary and secondary schools, we have received guidance and instruction that was given to prepare us to meet the obstacles of life. Our high school faculty and our principal have done much in preparing us for our careers. If we are unsuccessful in life, it will not be because of lack of preparedness. We have been prepared; now it is up to us to enter the adult world and work hard to earn a living, and for what is more important to gain, the satisfaction that comes from rendering a worthwhile service to our fellowmen through whatever work we do.

GEORGE C. ACKLEY, JR.

Class Song

Together, we have bridged the past;
Together, we have spanned the streams;
Now comes the time when we at last,
Must search alone for secret dreams.

But we'll remember sun on classroom floor,
The laughing voices trailing down the hall,
The click of heels along the corridor,
The graduation sorrow of us all.

We'll remember happiness at dances,
The songs we sang and hummed from day to day,
Friendships which developed to romances,
The fun of tournaments—the senior play.

Yes, we'll remember thrills at football games,
The paper, with its words of fun and thought,
The friends we loved, their faces and their names,
The lessons learned—which teacher-friends have taught.

So now, dear friends, we stand at silver bar;
We've learned that hope for peace and glory lies
Behind the eager, rising youthful star.
We turn to face the strange prophetic skies.

Music—DICK KNIPES

Words—CALVIN ATWOOD

Class History

Little did we know, we the Class of 1948, as we crept through the old gym door, that the Seniors had prepared a mighty ambush just inside, tomahawks poised in readiness to remove our tiny green scalps. They considered us papooses then, but today we are the maidens, braves, and chieftains of the Red Raider Village.

We smoked our first peace pipe with the mighty warriors of the Class of '44 when they invited us to the Freshman Reception, where we were embarrassingly entertained and initiated into the rituals of tribal life.

As papooses we became very interested in customs and ceremonies—an interest clearly shown in our active participation in various tribal functions such as bark scribbling on the "Red and White," voodoo and medicine man performances in the Science Club, and witch-doctoring with incantations of the magic tongue in the Freshwomen Dramatics Club and Forensic Society.

To lead us in our battle cries and war dances: "Running-Dear" Plude, "Long-Scalp" McKerley, and "Cloud-Eye" Mintzer were chosen to become varsity cheerleaders. We sent our first papooses along the trail in March and they succeeded in capturing championship laurels at the Freshman-Sophomore Tournament. Representing the Red and White for the first time were: Bill Grace, Ed Godnick, Win Goodspeed, Ted Munsat, Al Rousseau, John Filippio, Dick Davidson, John LaBrake, Irv Shappy, and Buzz Snyder.

Lucky tepee thirteen actually threw off its jinx when it prayed to the Inspection Committee god, who answered by presenting its guide, Ralph Shangraw, with "The Ship."

The first little chiefs of our '48 tribe proved to be: President—George Ackley; Vice President—Bill Grace; Secretary-Treasurer—Joan Mintzer.

When Indian Summer rolled around again, as sophomore savages, we slipped quite a bit more confidently into the east and west entrances of our R. H. S. Wigwam, realizing that there were greener scalps than ours for playful Seniors to lift. Our Indian log seems to stress the point that it was about this time when war paint became exceedingly popular with the maidens of our tribe.

Our tribal activities of the new season began by our helping the other squaws and braves of the wigwam to select a Secretary-Treasurer to the Grand Council (Student Council) from among our savages. Ralph Shangraw received our approving votes for handling the wampum and bark scribbling of this organization.

In this historical year we chose two maidens as tribal officials. Joan Mintzer presided over group gatherings as president; George Ackley assisted in the capacity of vice president; and Secretary-Treasurer Joan Manley completed the picture as tribe scribe.

Our savages resorted to black magic that March and again displayed their victory spirit when they won sophomore honors in the Freshman-Sophomore Tourney. Responsible for this great tribal event were: Bill Grace, Ed Godnick, Win Goodspeed, Dick Davidson, George Ackley, John Filippio, Buddy Crossman, John Churchill, Bernie Ravenna, and Ted Munsat.

Our '48 tribe then decided it was time they learned to hop, and soon sponsored the famous Sophomore Bazaar, under the co-chieftainship of Phyllis Perkins and John Filippo. Much to our pride and joy, this first important tribal activity was a huge success, and almost one hundred pieces of wampum were buried in our treasury mound. Featured in our Village Bighouse (the gym) on that gala eve were popular dart games, star-readings, war dances, and many such appropriate festival customs.

"The Smoke-Talk," our village publication, better known as the "Red and White," chose as business manager, a shrewd guide from our interpreters of number signals. Bob (Ad-Hunter) Noble received the coveted position.

The annual Red-Letter Day came when athletes Goodspeed, Godnick, Munsat, Nason, Davidson, Knipes, Taylor, and Gillam were presented with their first Letter awards.

Many moons passed over our tepee-tops, and near the harvest moon of September, 1946, we returned to hunt in the halls of our Great Wigwam as Juniors. Having successfully passed through the crisis stages of papooses and savages, we now began to see the eyes of the elders of our tribe following us about and we realized that our initiation into the solemn responsibilities of Upper-Tribesmen was upon us.

Three of our most renowned warpath Raiders won class offices. The presidency went to George (Rain-in-the-Face) Ackley. Dick (Eye-on-the-Hoop) Davidson was elected vice president, and Bill (Clipped-o-Maniac) Grace became secretary-treasurer.

Our tribe, much pleased with the work of Secretary-Treasurer Ralph (Massasoit) Shangraw, again elected him to represent us on the Grand Council, this time as vice president.

Because of their experience in pottery-making, pebble-polishing, and other tribal arts, Elise Plude, Joan Manley, Lloyd Kelley, Phyllis Perkins, and Ted Munsat were elected to select our symbol of eternal fellowship, the class ring, which is our all-tribal insignia set upon a ruby stone and banded with gold.

Chosen to lead the gridiron scalp-getters for the '47-'48 wars was Edward (Tree-Twister) Godnick.

One of the proudest moments in our village came when the 1947 "Swish Kids" captured the State Basketball crown at Burlington and then proceeded along the trail to Boston to participate in the New England Tournament. Two of our tribesmen, Dick Davidson and Bill Grace, aided in removing twenty-five enemy scalps while ours were clipped only twice.

The women broke into the "Smoke-Talk" headlines in March when Mary Jean Burr became Editor-in-Chief and Joan Mintzer was selected as Associate Editor.

When came the Spring-month April, with solemn ceremonial, one of our braves, George Ackley, and three of our maidens, Mary Jean Burr, Joan McKerley, and Joan Mintzer, were initiated into the National Honor Society, signifying such worthy achievement in their tribal life that they joined the company of the few throughout all tribes of the nation who represented most faithfully its ideals.

Instead of dawdling in such fine arts as handloom weaving, basket-making, and fancy beadwork, several of our Pocahontases and Hiawathas worked on the ceremonial art called drama, and presented a one-act play, "The Hungry," by William Saroyan which took first place in the District Contest and was also entered in the State Drama Festival at Norwich. The cast included Guy Chase, Mary Ellen Hunt, Calvin Atwood, and Joan Mintzer.

We erected a totem pole in front of tepee 201 in honor of tribesman Cal Atwood when he received two scholarships in the U. V. M. literary contests for his essay "Memorandum" and his poem called "Process."

Come May Flowers, a diminutive Indian god invaded our giant canoe (U. S. S. Dream Boat), and deluged the vessel with tiny little arrows shot from a tiny little bow on the 17th at our "Make Believe" Junior Prom chairmaned by Cal Atwood. Surrounded by the black, white, and silver of the decorations, the dancers in their customary tribal circles, Elk-leaped to the music of Ianni's Orchestra a/la Jerome (Silver-Cloud) Kern. Photographs were taken, passports were checked, and all was laughter, gaiety, and red-skinned romance beneath the Crystal Ball.

It has long been a tradition of our lithe and fleet-footed race to excel in running and field events and this the Raiders did in 1947. They ran away with the state championship in track and competed in the New England contest. Dick (Long-Spear) Knipes, Harold (Strong Wing) Seward, and Don (Big Wind) Cheney represented our tribe.

Exploring by-paths in the ancestral lore of our state, a brave and a maiden from our tribe, Ralph Shangraw and Betty Stillwell, sent well-worded scrolls to the Edmunds Essay contest and won the district prizes.

"Pass that hatchet and bury that peace pipe" became the watchwords of twenty-six Monitors who were chosen for sentry duty for the next year. Under the chieftainship of Head-Monitor Ralph Shangraw, they withstood the onslaughts of hatchets, bubble gum, hissing, long streams of pistol-projected water, and other bric-a-brac too numerous to mention.

During the early part of our summer vacation we sent (by canoe up Otter Creek): Carolyn Ward, Mary Jean Burr, Corinne White, Joan McKerley, Joan Mintzer, Bill Grace, George Ackley, Kyle Taylor, Ed Godnick, Dick White, Bob Tuggey, Dave Newton, and Dan McCarthy to the big pow-wows known as Girls' and Boys' State, held in Montpelier and Northfield, respectively.

On September 2, 1947 we received the hurried smoke signals from the High Priests, calling us back from forest depths. On moccasined feet, we confidently strode back into the classrooms of the Giant Wigwam for the fourth and final time, prepared to accept the responsibilities of becoming dignified Seniors. Under the leadership of the Grand Council's newly elected Chief, Calvin Atwood, we resolved to blaze clear and dignified trails for uncertain Under Tribesmen to follow.

Shortly after our return, we held a tribal meeting, puffed highly and mightily on our long-stemmed pipes and elected the following class officers: President—George Ackley; Vice President—Dave Newton; Secretary—Dick Davidson; Treasurer—Ted Munsat.

Into our village one fine October day rolled the Freedom Train, its sleek silver exterior housing heritage words and symbols to remind us of the vigor with which ancestral tribesmen had blazed trails for us to follow. Two of our brothers, Calvin Atwood and Ralph Shangraw, inspired by faith in such a heritage, wrote their thoughts and won prizes therewith, to the honor of the tribe.

Apple Harvesting time arrived along with the Freshman Reception, our first major undertaking of the year. Co-chaired by Bob (Perk-in-his-Eye) Noble and Joan (Cloud-Eye) Mintzer the affair was a carousing success. Witch-Doctor I. Lash doctored the documents and charmed the green-ness of the freshmen's skins into a Scarlet Raider Red.

We all took to our highly diluted fire-water when three of our famed heroes, outstanding in Raider gridiron wars of '47, were named to the All-State Team. They were Co-captains Ed Godnick and Ted Munsat, and Right-End Bill Grace.

In place of our great ceremonial, the annual Sun Dance, the class presented Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" as the Senior Play. Under the direction of High Priestess Mabel Morrill and students Lillian Paul and Mary Ellen Hunt, two highly successful performances were enacted on December 11th and 12th. Starring in the lead roles were Mary Blais, Norman Lash, Jack Duffy, Ben Muhlberg, Lloyd Kelley, Calvin Atwood, and Joan Mintzer.

After long consideration, we decided that the events of our four years in the turbulent tepees should be permanently recorded in the form of a year-book known as "The Talisman." We got out our pipes again, blew many impressive rings of blue smoke around and decided that Co-Editors Joan McKerley and Claire LaCroix, and Co-Business Managers Lloyd Kelley and Guy Chase would fill the moccasins nicely.

Ralph Shangraw added new feathers to his Warbonnet when he won a scholarship of $1,200 from the Quiz Kids for his essay "I Died at Gettysburg," which was rated in this contest as one of the five best in the nation.

We all wah-hoo-wahed around the campfire, spears poised in honor of Mary (Gay-Cloud) Eddy, when she was selected as Good Citizenship Girl by the D. A. R.

The braves who participate in games and sports in our tribe banded together and organized the first A. A. Revue since 1941. Varsity Club members who were responsible for its hilarious success were Norman Lash, Guy Chase, and Ted Munsat.

In February we selected the chairman for the festivities, rituals, and ceremonies which were to take place during Senior Week. Given the long wampum belt of power to guide these activities were:

BACCALAUREATE—C. (Paleface) White
SENIOR RECEPTION—L. (Crazy Horse) Kelley
CLASS NIGHT—N. (Sitting Bull) Lash
COMMENCEMENT—L. (Wolf Ear) White
IVY PLANTING—G. (Rain-in-the-Face) Ackley
CLASS GIFT—D. (Corn-Planter) Newton
CLASS WILL—N. (Sitting Bull) Lash
CLASS PROPHECY—T. (Squinto) Munsat
CLASS SONG—Music—R. (Sweet Sound) Knipes
Words—C. (Long Sleep) Atwood
CLASS HISTORY—J. (Cloud Eye) Mintzer

One of the last Indian wars took place during the basketball season when Captain Dick Davidson led the Red Raiders to the Co-Championship of the Southern Vermont League. Other braves representing our Tribe were Bill Grace, Dave Newton, Irving Shappy, and Ted Munsat.

A prankish spirit descended upon our Tribe and caused a strange phenomenon, heretofore unknown and unheard of by Tribe Historians. We refer to Co-Valedictorians Mary Jean Burr and Joan Mintzer and Salutatorian Joan McKerley.

Deviating from the usual staid routine of tom-tom beating, we stepped outside our realm of lore when John (Trail-Blaiser) LaBrake, composed his fine "Dedication March" for the Spring Band Concert.

Our greatest tribal award of full headdresses were presented to five of our kinsmen for Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character, the requisites for membership in The National Honor Society. They were: Mary Gay Eddy, Darleyne Hart, Mary Ellen Hunt, David Newton, and Ralph Shangraw.

The scalp-locked savages of the fine art section returned again to the theatrical field to present Susan Glaspell's "Suppressed Desires" which took first place at the district one-act play contest and at the time of this writing was preparing to enter the State Drama Festival. Injuns from our Tribe participating were Joan Manley, George Taylor, and Mary Ellen Hunt.

Chosen to be the Tribe's interpreters and spokesmen for the graduation ceremonials were Senior Essayists; Calvin Atwood, Mary Jean Burr, Claire LaCroix, and Betty Stillwell.

As all Red Raiders know, there is an end to every trail; thus have we come to the end of our trail here at Rutland High School. Our quivers are filled with new and sharper arrows, and we have keener tomahawks with which to blaze new and wider trails in the vast wilderness of knowledge.

Somehow, sometime, all of our Tribe shall gather again in the Council Chambers of Manitou. The Great Spirit shall smile upon us; we will smoke our long pipes, speak our soft words and we will know then, that here were the richest Hunting Grounds and here were the happiest days.

Class Prophecy

Good eveing, ladies and gentlemen. June 10, 1958, and time for our daily commentary on the news. Today we have a very special broadcast in store for you. Ten years ago we decided to take a model class of graduating high school students and to follow their various activities through the years. To carry on this experiment we chose what we considered an average class—that of Rutland High School located in Rutland, Vermont. Exactly ten years have passed since the beginning of our experiment and the results have proved very interesting. Many of the class members are closely related to today's news of the world.

For example here is the news from abroad . . .

MARY JANE BORAH, now designing clothes for the Dumouchel Clothing Corporation, has recently visited Paris where she discussed current styles with Mlle. PAULINE DYER, renowned French designer.

In Patagonia WILLIAM (JOSE) GRACE has been successful in his overthrow of the country's government. Issuing his first public proclamation, Senor Grace assured his followers that the proposed three-hour work day will be put into effect. This idea of a shorter working day was conceived by the Secretary of State, CARL EATON, while he was attending high school.

REBECCA FREDETTE and JANICE CARLISLE are now working at the U. S. Government's advance post in Belgian Congo. They are promoting interests in the "New Look."

MARY JEAN BURR, famous lecturer on world peace, is now touring Europe attempting to raise funds to aid her in forming a world federation. Her proposed constitution even includes a clause that is a cinch to pull the Rutland Railroad out of debt.

REAR ADMIRAL RICHARD ENO, now directing a U. S. Naval detachment patrolling the Mediterranean, has imprisoned fifteen men who attempted mutiny. Led by COOK FIRST CLASS WINSLOW GOODSPEED, this group of sailors attempted to gain control of the fleet's flagship. Their plans were to sail the captured ship to Zululand where they would provide the natives with transportation up and down the various rivers. The plot was discovered by RADIOMAN ROBERT HATHAWAY who overheard the conspiracy while fixing the ship's radar.

JACQUELINE DUFFY and SHIRLEY DONAHUE are still working in the heart of wild Tibet trying to introduce the inhabitants to modern civilization. So far they have succeeded in teaching the natives to say in perfect English, "Oh! Beat M. S. J!"

KEN ERICKSON has just returned from an exploration trip deep in the heart of Africa. With his colleagues HAROLD HOLLMAN and ED DESPRES, he has succeeded in forming a monopoly on the African Kool-Aid business.

And now for the news on the home front . . .

MARGUERITE JOHNSON and VELMA KINGSBURY, well known teachers at Vassar, have just completed a book entitled, "How To Graduate From High School In Three Years" or "Why Work Four?"

JUNE HALL and MARY ELLEN HUNT are now singing with Guy Lombardo's band.

DICK DAVIDSON, head of the F. B. I., has received a citation from America's first woman president, DARLEYNE HART, for his uncovering of a plot to overthrow the government. This uprising, caused by the "New Whig" party, was under the leadership of "ROPE" CHASE, notorious undercover man. Also included in the roundup were "LEFTY" TUGGEY and "SLUG" HESSE.

The new style show has opened in New York with such famous models as CLAIRE LACROIX, ELINOR INGALLS, and JEAN HOLMES.

On the political scene JOE DAVINE, candidate for state senator, has promised his campaign leaders free tickets to the Southern Vermont Basketball Tournament if he wins the election.

LIONEL DEBLOIS, famous trumpeter, has now formed his own orchestra consisting entirely of female musicians. Singing for him are three ex-school-teachers, IRENE HOWLAND, SHIRLEY LACOE, and ANNE LALIBERTE.

MYRON ACKLEY and JOHN CHURCHILL have finally hit upon an idea with which they plan to make a quick fortune. They have decided to construct a plant which will manufacture all the hats that people fight at the drop of. (This last bulletin was broadcast without regard to our English adviser who warned us never to "use a proposition to end a sentence with.")

JACKY KNOWLTON, star of stage and screen, has left New York for Hollywood to play the lead in another movie. This picture, which will be her thirteenth, will be entitled, "How Black Was My Eye?"

HERB BRYANT, in his new water-propelled plane, has succeeded in cutting down the trans-continental speed record until it no longer exists.

DUDLEY NORTH, an engineer in the General Electric plant in San Francisco, has just returned from a visit to DR. GEORGE (SMILEY) GERDON, the famous psychiatrist. Ever since his graduation from high school, when he was elected noisiest in the class, Dudley has been acting strangely. His secretary, MILDRED DANSRO, says she has frequently heard him mumbling, "The man I beat was better qualified for the position."

DONALD and NORBERT CHENEY have banded together forming that well known vaudeville act "The Cheney Brothers." Also on tour with them are FLORENCE BARBER, RAMONA COOK, and ROBERTA CURLEY who are introducing the African "Pogo" dance to American theater-goers.

Also in the way of music, MARY BLAIS has recently finished a tour of Europe where she thrilled royalty with the playing of her violin. Her manager and press agent is JOHN LABRAKE who has been with her for the last eleven years.

LLOYD KELLEY, about to be electrocuted for illegal possession of a peashooter, has been proclaimed the perfect gentleman by the entire nation—for offering his seat to the warden at the last minute.

CAL ATWOOD, writer of that famous poem, "Ode to a Code in the Node," has decided that poetry is, after all, a dying part of world culture and has decided to turn to running a fleet of taxis. Some of his competent (?) drivers are FRANK CHAPMAN, BUD CROSSMAN, and PIERCE KING.

THOMAS FAGAN, while playing the lead in the Metropolitan Opera's current showing of the "Barber of Seville," has been quoted as saying, "Use Kreml for your hair."

MARY GAY EDDY has recently published her fourth book which is entitled "Forever Embers." It has been banned in Boston and so has become a top seller throughout the country.

And now for some news from the world of sports . . .

"TUP" FRANZONI is currently burning up the slopes at popular European ski resorts. After winning the men's downhill and slalom races in last year's Olympics, he has decided to stay on the continent and to continue to wow the Europeans with his skiing prowess. A former member of his high school ski team, Franzoni attributes his success to the patience and understanding of his former coach, Mr. William Root.

GEORGE ACKLEY, while studying at West Point, has left the Academy to join "TORCHY" LASH's pro football team, "The Flames." "The Flames," current leaders in the pro football world, have also signed "SPEEDY" ELMORE and "FLIP" FILIPPO who were on last year's All-American selections. Rumor has it that Lash is also trying to sign "SWIVEL-HIPS" KNIPES, but that he is holding out for more money. ED GODNICK, "The Flames" press agent, attributes the team's success to its cheerleaders, MARIE ALTRUI and EDITH BRAISLIN.

Well, that's all the news from here for now, and so until the next broadcast, I remain your faithful reporter . . .

TED MUNSAT

Class Will

We, the graduating class of the year of one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight, of Rutland High School, of the City of Rutland, County of Rutland and State of Vermont, being of fatigued mind but having lovely memories, and mindful of the uncertainties involved in graduation and the certainty of writing senior essays, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament.

"BUZZ" SNYDER leaves scotch-tape to mend the hearts he has broken during his high school days.

EVA and ELSIE LAWRENCE will their art of puzzling teachers to Dave and Dick Roe.

DAVE NEWTON leaves his truck in Flander's Field where the Roses grow.

BOB NOBLE wills his quiet ways to next year's seniors; in other words, he leaves nothing.

HOWARD NASON bequeaths his nickname "Rugged" to the star of next year's M. S. J. football game. (You'll have to go some to earn this title.)

JACK THOMPSON leaves a blue print of the Green Mountain Junior College campus to the Junior boys. (Handle with care, boys; it took Jack five years to complete it.)

FRANCES "THE BEAUTY" CALLAHAN, MARILYN "THE STYLE QUEEN" DANFORTH, and CHARLOTTE "THE WIT" MORRIS leave . . . together, as usual. (Followed by oh's and ah's!)

LILLIAN PAUL wills the history of her senior year to "True Story Magazine."

HARRY ROGERS leaves saying, "All students are created equal"; while BARB McCULLOUGH says, "Give me an 'A' or give me death."

HAROLD SEWARD refused to leave his most prized possessions, being tall, dark and handsome. He did consent, however, to will his sense of humor to Donald Peer.

JOAN MCKERLEY leaves her class picture to next year's track team, to be placed at the finish line. (If this doesn't make them run faster, nothing will.)

BERNARD RAVENNA reluctantly wills his spot in front of Adams and Noe after installing many modern conveniences. He even went as far as removing the fire hydrant.

DICK LEVINE leaves his French II book to Jack Schremly. (It's practically new, Jack. I don't think he's opened it more than twice during the year; do you, Miss Bailey?)

PAUL TOMLINSON wills a box of Kleenex for next year's seniors to wipe away their tears graduation night.

DANNY MCCARTHY leaves his rosy cheeks to any junior girl who is too lazy to put on rouge.

JOAN "GOOGIE" MANLEY wills her taste for good clothes to Beverly Lash. (And you can be sure, Bev, that it is a sweet taste.)

SHIRLEY MINARD leaves this jingle to the driver training course: "I like Super Suds because the suds tickle my nose when I wash out my old paper napkins." (They're sure to win that new Chevrolet now.)

BETTY STILLWELL bequeaths her nickname "Stinky" to anyone who wants it. (Generous, isn't she?)

RALPH SHANGRAW leaves his list of accomplishments to be added to the Freshman Handbook as examples of what a student can do for his school if he really tries.

SHIRLEY MORRIS leaves . . . for Sweden.

PHYLLIS MACK wills her typing skill to Mary Jane Anderson. (Phyllis doesn't need it; that red hair would kindle a flame in any boss's heart.)

CARL OBERG, ERWIN WEST, and RICHARD MOULTON all leave happily ever after.

PAUL TRAPENI leaves his senior essay to be read by students who claim they have nothing to do in study hall.

BETTY WISELL leaves her place as last, alphabetically that is, to Robert Williams.

BARB MOORE wills her art of making friends to all new comers to Rutland High School.

DONALD LEWIS leaves R. H. S. still wondering what the "Anti-Monitor Campaign" was all about.

IRV SHAPPY wills three pinball machines to be left in room 213 so detention will seem less boring.

TED MUNSAT leaves the football coach hoping that baby brother Stanley will mean as much to the team as All-State Captain-Brother did.

GLORIA MYERS leaves a blanket of quietness to be laid over the Sophomore girls.

DONALD LECLAIR leaves his motto: "Silence is golden; that's why there is so little of it."

BEN MUHLBERG leaves, still wondering whether he will become an actor or go to college. (Remember, Ben, if you go to college you gain knowledge only by degrees, but if you are an actor you gain knowledge by stages.)

ROSE PIPPIN and ELAINE WILDER leave still arguing. Rose says that the best way to cure dandruff is the guillotine. But Elaine says that the only thing that will stop falling dandruff is the floor. (Now I ask you, friends, isn't America a wonderful place? Where else would they allow people to get up and voice their opinions on life, liberty and the pursuit of a healthy scalp?)

MARILYN MURPHY sadly leaves her desk in 102. (Just a little fond affection for the WEST SIDE of the school, Marilyn?)

CECELIA SESTITO and RACHEL RICKERT leave their front seats in English class to Maurice Brewster and Janice Martin.

ANDY SOLOMKA leaves a few "frauleins'" telephone numbers to "Pablo" Edgerton who expects to study astronomy in Germany.

FRANCES REYNOLDS leaves a petition stating that the students of Rutland High School should be allowed to roller skate to classes. (If everyone likes roller skating as much as Frances does it won't be long before they'll be rolling by the monitors.)

CAROLYN WARD leaves her opinion on "jazz": that the musician who invented swing, ought to.

With the assistance of PROFESSORS RALPH PITTS and MILTON SQUIER, DONALD WEBSTER leaves his newly revised dictionary to the school library. (Noah's was too complicated anyway.)

AL ROUSSEAU leaves some of his weight to Jimmy Vennett while DONALD "BULLDOG" MURRAY leaves unhappily because Al promised he would give it to him.

KYLE TAYLOR leaves his wave to the Navy.

JOHN "THE LITTLE DUKE" PREVIE wills his fedora (or soft hat, for the benefit of peasants) to Mr. Root. (Somebody gave Mr. Root's the "twist.")

JOAN MINTZER wills her popularity to the whole Junior class. Since there's more than enough to go around, the Sophomores may apply for their cut also. (Office hours from midnight throughout the wee hours.)

ELISE PLUDE leaves the junior boys wishing they could go with her.

PHYLLIS PERKINS leaves Rutland High with a great accomplishment to her credit. (Not everyone can win the Noble Prize.)

GEORGE TAYLOR leaves for Broadway where he is booked for the leading role in the new stage hit "Lassie Come Home." (Poor George will be leading a dog's life.)

CATHRYN TENNIEN leaves for New Orleans where she expects to start her new organization, "Cigarettes Anonymous." Cathryn's motto is "Smoke and the world smokes with you; swear off and you smoke alone."

CAROL RAYMOND leaves only to return for a P. G.

BARB RICH leaves singing, "Roe, Roe, your boat gently down Clarendon Springs . . ."

HELEN RAYMOND leaves this problem to future biology classes: "How does the hen know the size of an egg-cup when she lays an egg?"

DORIS LIND wills her two pet dogs to track down students who are illegally absent from school.

CORINNE, RICHARD, and LESTER WHITE will a box of "Oxydol" to little George Green so he too may be WHITE without bleaching.

In witness thereof on this first day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight and in the era of "The New Look," atomic bombs, and "the new improved anti-sneeze Rinso," I have this day caused my signature to be affixed hereunto the Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1948.

Selectmen

Student Council

Goodman Douglas when called to the platform by Moderator Guild, asked if the council's chief moderator, Calvin Atwood, might give his report. Upon his assent in the affirmative, Master Atwood then proceeded to give his report. He named Master David Roe as his vice president and Master Lindley "Squeak" Squires as secretary-treasurer.

"The chief moderator, his two assistants, and the remaining council had a busy year. They helped sponsor in conjunction with the Varsity Club and the Cheerleaders the basketball dances. All class elections were under their jurisdiction. They also conducted assemblies, and home room inspections and sponsored the Thanksgiving basket project. During the year the council reconstructed the school's constitution. They were instrumental in instituting the program called 'Student of the Week.' The chairman of this program was Ralph Shangraw and it selected the student who had been outstanding for the week; he or she was selected by the chief moderator and his two assistants."

Master Atwood's report was duly accepted and his efforts were enthusiastically applauded.

Community Life

Red and White

 Second row: Robert Tuggey, Jacqueline Duffy, Robert Hathaway, Maurice Brewster, Eugene Grippin, Calvin Atwood, Robert Rogers, Georgia Moustakis, Mary Anna Bugbee, Beverly Gould.
 Third row: Mary Ellen Hunt, Barbara Rich, Darleyne Hart, Ramona Cook, Claire LaCroix, Jean Johnson, Janice Martin, Patricia Hubbard, Virginia Garza, Cynthia Taylor, Patricia Mullin, Nancy Buckheim, Joan McKerley.

Moderator Guild then called for the report of the newspaper which follows:

"The Red and White has spent a very successful year journalistically and financially under the editorship of Mary Jean Burr and the management of Robert Noble. Mistress Madeline Buttles has acted as faculty adviser.

"A number of interesting experiments were attempted by the staff members throughout the year. Seven of the twenty-five issues consisted of six pages instead of the customary four, while seven were printed in color. Of these, the majority were in colored ink, although some were on colored paper as well.

"Outstanding among the special issues was the April Fool's paper, the 'Black and Blue.' Topsy-turvy make-up coupled with impossible and exaggerated stories made it extremely unique. In addition, the St. Patrick's Day issue, the special Leap Year publication, and the paper which illustrated the theme of Brotherhood Week were popular numbers.

"The cooperation, interest, ability, dependability, and initiative demonstrated by the staff members have resulted in an unusually successful year."

 Second row: Lloyd Kelley, Richard Roe, Darleyne Hart, Eugene Grippin, Harold Swanson, David Roe, Barbara Rich, Warren Carlisle, William Battles.
 Standing: Kenena Hansen, Francis Rice, Rosemary Flanders, George Greene, Beverly Reed, Russell Carleton, Patricia Dolan, Wilfred Cady, Mary Jane Borah, Lorraine Bellamy, Mary Bradder, Robert Noble, Allison Lane.

Mr. Guild spoke: "Will George H. Low, Esquire, please give us a report." Accordingly that gentleman came to the front of the room and read.

"Members of the Town Meeting:

"This is a report of what the band accomplished during the year we have just finished.

"The band has for the first time in its history, organized a Band Staff composed of leaders of each section of the band. These members were: Clarinets, Dick Knipes; Trumpets, John LaBrake; Saxaphones, Richard Roe; Basses, Lloyd Kelley; percussion, Wilfred Dady; Drum Majorettes, Patricia Dolan; and Manager, Francis Rice. The main purpose of this staff was to improve the band by student government by the student directors, the secretary and the treasurer. They relieved the director from rudimentary training of the marching band and took attendance, kept music in order, tuned instruments and prepared the band for noon practice. They also gave demerits to any member who did not cooperate or attend rehearsals and concerts.

"The band surely deserved new uniforms as some recompense for the arduous practising and the giving up of their time to play on such occasions as the arrival of the Freedom Train on October 13, the Armistice Day Parade, all home football games, and also for the game at Claremont and at M. S. J. when difficult precision drills were performed. The band played also for the Uniform Tag Day, P. T. A. meeting on February 18, Pep Rallies, concerts and the All-State Music Festival at Burlington on May 6, 7 and 8, and at the New England Music Festival at Hampton Beach, New Hampshire on May 21 and 22. On these occasions their school and their director had reason to be really proud. May marked the first public appearance of their new uniforms which merited the commendation they received.

"The officers were: Student Directors, John LaBrake, Dick Knipes; Secretary, Bruce Snyder; Treasurer, Wilfred Cady.

GEORGE H. LOW"

Maorettes

Second row: Mary Bradder, Allison Lane.

Orchestra

Third row: Mr. George Low, Director; Darleyne Hart, Eugene Grippin, Donald LaBrake, Roy Donahue, John LaBrake, Lindley Squires, Bruce Snyder, Francis Rice, Russell Carleton.

Mr. George H. Low has again conducted an orchestra of which our school can well be proud. Under his direction the orchestra has performed creditably on numerous occasions.

At the request of our chief town father Squire Low read this report:

"At Christmas the orchestra combined with the chorus to present a special assembly program which was also electrically transcribed over the local radio station.

"In the spring the orchestra participated in the Music Festival in Burlington; several members, namely: Roy Plumley, Geraldine Wheeler, Dick Martin, Robert Howe, Jim White, Elinor Ingalls, Darleyne Hart, Warren Carlisle, played in the All-State Orchestra.

"The orchestra has played for assemblies, plays and for the Rutland Community Club."

Chorus

 Second row: Mary Blais, Barbara Moore, Reba Cook, Ramona Cook, Marilyn Murphy, Lorraine Bellamy, Gareth Wetherell, Jeanne Sharp, Joan LaCroix, Doris Lind, Rachel Rickert, Alice Chellis, Jacqueline Daley.
 Third row: George Miller, James Vennett, Douglas Norcross, James Phillips, Donald LaBrake, William Frappier, George Peck, Francis Raymond, Boynton Snee, Harold Swanson, Roy Donahue, Robert Howe, John LaBrake, Mr. George Low, Director.
 Fourth row: John Schremley, Herbert Bryant, Roy Plumley, Dick Knipes, David Roe, Eugene Grippin, Matthew Burke, Robert Beauchamp, Richard Roe, Robert Noble, John Edgerton, Warren Bergstrom.
 At the piano: Mary Jean Burr.

MIXED CHORUS

The moderator after gaining attention with his gavel called upon George H. Low, Esquire for his report.

"Over eighty boys and girls comprised the R. H. S. Mixed Chorus during the past year. Under the direction of Mr. George H. Low the chorus gave several performances.

"Together with the orchestra they presented a musical program which was given at the Christmas Assembly for the student body and was later broadcast over Station W. S. Y. B.

"Some of the compositions that the chorus sang were Fred Waring's arrangements of 'Twas the Night Before Christmas,' 'The Lost Chord,' and 'Battle Hymn of the Republic'; also 'Lo, How a Rose 'Ere Blooming,' which was sung unaccompanied. The finale of the Christmas Concert was the 'Spirit of Christmas Fantasy' in which both the chorus and the orchestra participated.

"The Rutland Community Club was entertained at one of its regular meetings by our exceptionally fine chorus.

"The State Music Festival was also a major part of this year's program. The following members were chosen to participate in the All-State Chorus; Ramona Cook, Marilyn Murphy, Doris Lind, Celestine Raymond, Claire LaCroix, Marjory Perkins, Pat Dolan, Rosemary Flanders, John Schremley, James Phillips, John Filippo, Warren Bergstrom, Robert Noble, George Peck, and Robert Beauchamp."

Mimes

Front row: Joan McKerley, Mary Jane Borah, Phyllis Perkins, Joan Manley, Lillian Paul, Beverly Lash, Joan Mintzer, Frances Callahan, Edith Braislin, Robert Tuggey, Mary Gay Eddy, Corinne White.
 Second row: Martha Edson, Betsy Smith, Mary Anna Bugbee, Nancy Buckheim, Constance Clark, Suzanne Davis, Geraldine Wheeler, Joan Colette, Agnes Bizdikian, Marilyn Trop, Cynthia Taylor, Barbara Moore, Marilyn Murphy, Jacqueline Duffy, Elise Plude.
 Third row: Mary Jane Anderson, Marjory Perkins, Olivene Seward, Peggy Westburg, Patricia Mauer, Barbara Adams, Mary Jeffords, Jacqueline Daley, Carol Raymond, Darleyne Hart, Janice Carlisle, Mrs. L. Mabel Morrill, Faculty Adviser.
 Fourth row: George Taylor, Guy Chase, Calvin Atwood, Robert Rogers, Tilton Richards.

As Dame Morrill rose, the townspeople prepared themselves to pay heed to what was to be said about Mimes. One and all were interested in the activities of the theater-minded boys and girls of the school.

"During the year many aspects of the theater were brought to the members through reading performances, talks made by members about current plays on Broadway, make-up demonstrations, and a guest speaker in the dramatic field.

"In February, Mimes collaborated with Junior Mimes and presented the three-act play, 'Brother Goose,' one of the bigger dramatic undertakings of the year. The group entered a play in the State Play Contest. The cast of 'Suppressed Desires,' Marjory Perkins, Joan Manley and Robert Rogers, won first place in the district contest at Windsor, April first. They also participated in the State finals at Norwich University two weeks later.

"Toward the end of May the members enjoyed a banquet which was the final event of the year's activities."

Dame Morrill was seated after her report had been accepted.

Junior Mimes

"Fellow Townspeople:

"Under the leadership of Dame Greene, the freshmen studied about the theater. This year the members of Junior Mimes spent a great deal of time studying the development of theater and drama.

"In addition to the plays presented at regular meetings this club produced a one-act play 'Life of The Party' by Donald Payton for an assembly program.

"The boys and girls worked earnestly to prepare themselves for future membership in Mimes."

At the conclusion of this report the moderator said, "Thank ye," and filed the report.

Front row: Claire Hebert, Jean Guttenplan, Ruth Davidson, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Greene, Faculty Adviser; Boynton Snee, Harlow Shaw.
 Second row: Robert Crawford, Janet Fifield, Constance Colburn, Douglas Norcross, Arlington Pond, James Phillips, Sue Terrill, Jane Perkins.
 Third row: Joanne Burke, Barbara Rosen, Sheila Davis, Theodora Phillips, Carlene Johnson, Carolyn Ackley, Cornelia Herrick, Warren Carlisle.

International Relations Club

First row: Richard Levine, Mary Ellen Hunt, Elise Plude, Jacqueline Duffy, Mary Jean Burr, Warren Bergstrom.

Third row: Eugene Grippin, Norma Marsh, Cynthia Taylor, Beatrice Soulia, Jean Stevens.

"Fellow townspeople:

"The International Relations Club is a new organization at Rutland High School, replacing the Student Federalists' group. It has for its purpose the making of students and faculty vividly and tolerantly conscious of world affairs, with an additional hope that each will do all he can to better world conditions.

"It was decided early in the year that the club would be governed by a council. Those chosen were: Master George Taylor, and these maidens: Mary Jean Burr, Suzanne Davis, Elise Plude, Jacqueline Duffy and Mary Ellen Hunt. Later when Master Taylor resigned, Warren Bergstrom became a member of the council. Mistress Mary Jean Burr took the job of secretary and Mistress Mary Ellen Hunt was made corresponding secretary. Master Richard Levine was elected treasurer. Meetings were held weekly; each club member was responsible for at least one program. Among the speakers were the Reverend J. Graydon Brown who spoke on the requisition of world peace; Harry Woshinsky, Miss Eleanor Schneider, and Dean Getty Page and Miss Marion Geigner of the Rutland Junior College.

"The club sent Mistress Mary Jean Burr and Master Warren Bergstrom to Montpelier as delegates to the state-wide high school conference on international relations. It was responsible for the visit which Mistress Eleanor Schneider, chapter secretary of the student division of World Federalists, made to the school. The international relations exhibit in the school library was sponsored by club members during the second semester, and the group was responsible for a Book Week exhibit on the same theme. A city-wide clothing drive was a successful project undertaken in April.

"In order to further interest in world events the club sponsored as assembly speaker, Professor Waldo H. Heinrichs of Middlebury College, who talked on 'America's Responsibility for an Enduring Peace'."

After a discussion of the report, the moderator called for the next report.

Science Club

Moderator Guild then asked Goodman Canary to step forward to give his report on the Science Club. Goodman Canary, who is new among us, scurried to the platform and proceeded.

"I have a short report," he announced, "but this report covers everything of importance that has taken place.

"First, the club elected Francis Rice, well-known for his stage-crew ability, as our president. They decided upon Darleyne Hart as their vice president and Janice Carlisle as their secretary-treasurer.

"Alas, and alack, we then were soon confronted with sorrowful news, for good neighbor Francis Rice resigned as president. An elder by the name of George Taylor was chosen to carry on the president's duties.

"One of the members known to all as Bob Hathaway gave two demonstrations of 'Frequency Modulation,' one at the school and another at his home. Francis Rice produced at one meeting artificial snow. Throughout the course of the year the club performed minor experiments with the available equipment, and at some meetings had a short instructive movie.

"This concludes my report and I thank ye," said Goodman Canary.

Front row: Darleyne Hart, Janice Carlisle, George Taylor, Mr. James L. Canary, Faculty Adviser; Carol Raymond, Mary Ellen Hunt.
Second row: Eugene Grippin, Paul Tomlinson, Maurice Brewster, Robert Hathaway, William Boutwell.

Home Economics Club

Front row: Jeanne Jasmin, Dolores Conant, Shirley Peters, Shirley Morris, Anne Thompson, Norma Marsh, Peggy Gilbert, Miss Bresnahan, Faculty Adviser; Shirley Shappy.
Second row: Judith Kotuby, Cornelia Herrick, Jeannette Burke, Joanne Burke, Marian Brown, Cynthia Taylor, Barbara Rowell.
Third row: Clara McCullough, Evelyn Hatch, Jean Stevens, Patricia Kinsman, Constance Colburn, Marilyn Jillson, Faye Russell, Beverly Ewing.
Fourth row: Oralia Garcia, Virginia Garza, Dorothy Martel, Geraldine Ghio, Virginia Hesse, Luella Hoffman.
Fifth row: Betty Balch, Joyce Ridlon, Glenna Wilder, Virginia Herrick, Jane Sabourin, Marilyn Trop, Doris White, Wilma Ward.

The report of the Home Economics Club was given by Mistress Bresnahan.

"The purpose of the Home Economics Club this year has been to teach its members teen-age grooming in various aspects and how to give successful parties.

"A guest speaker, Miss Christine Kendall, beautician, discussed and demonstrated hair-styles and make-up for the members.

"In cooperation with the Vermont State Children's Aid Society, the club made a Christmas box for an unfortunate girl. To raise money for various projects the clubsters made and sold fudge and popcorn balls after school several times during the course of the year.

"Our efficient president, Mistress Shirley Morris, is also president of the Vermont State Homemaking Club to which office she was elected in May, 1947 at the State meeting in Burlington."

|-----------------|---------------------|
| President | SHIRLEY MORRIS |
| Vice President | DORIS LIND |
| Secretary | ANN THOMPSON |
| Treasurer | NORMA MARSH |
| Faculty Adviser | MISS MARY BRESNEHAN |

At the conclusion of her report, Mistress Bresnahan returned to her place among the townsfolk.

Commuters' Club

Moderator Guild called upon Goodman Henry L. Doll to read his notes on the Commuters' Club activities. Goodman Doll arose and read his report.

"He told of the addition of a new faculty member to the club, Miss Mary Bresnehan, who is also new here at R. H. S. He told of Dick White's being elected as president and Dave Newton as vice president; Beverly Gibbs and Dick Johnson were elected to the remaining offices of secretary and treasurer respectively.

"The officers sold candy and used the proceeds to buy equipment for noon-time entertainment. As in former years, candy was distributed at stated times to the members. Noon-hour fun periods were enjoyed this year on alternating noon-hours by the boys and then by the girls. The spring brought out-door sports for the members. They still carried on, however, their usual games of shuffleboard and ping-pong."

Squire Doll's report having been accepted, he seated himself in the rear of the room.

Second row: Tilton Richards, Carolyn Ward, Rachel Homeister, Anne Thompson.
Third row: Leon Sherwood, Barbara Rowell, Betty Wisell, Phyllis Mack, Norma Marsh.

"Mr. Moderator, fellow townspeople:

"The Junior National Rifle Association which was organized at Rutland High School was under the supervision of Goodman Bugbee.

"To teach boys and girls the safe use and control of firearms, to supply an extra-curricular activity for non-varsity members and to provide entertainment for its members are the aims of the club.

"The members met twice a week at the Rutland Armory to receive instruction and to practice shooting. Their goal was to become pro-marksmen, marksmen, marksmen first class, sharpshooters, expert riflemen and finally distinguished riflemen. All of these titles qualified them for medal, pins, or brassards.

"For outside competition the boys and girls exchanged targets and scores with neighboring schools.

"The Rifle Club has been very successful and will undoubtedly increase in popularity and gain in membership in the years to come."

The officers for the year were:

Monitor Squad

No other organization contributes more each day to the welfare of the high school than the Monitor Squad. The efficient 1948 crew spent thirty-three minutes of every school day keeping the traffic moving smoothly, freely and as noiselessly as possible. The members were chosen for their qualities of leadership, responsibility, character, and scholarship.

Mistress Katherine Moran was faculty adviser and she was assisted in her administrative duties by Mistress Helen Bailey.

Master Ralph Shangraw was chosen chief of the squad. Mistress Mary Gay Eddy served as secretary and Squire Richard White served as treasurer. These officers and the rest of the group were responsible for the financial and social success of the annual Monitors' Dance in November.

The squad presented another social event in the form of a magic show featuring Squire Hartmann, a noted magician. This assembly was enthusiastically received by the entire student body. The group also sponsored several fudge sales which both satisfied the sweet tooth of the students and replenished the organization's treasury.

The final event of the year was the annual banquet in May.

Second row: Richard White, Lester White, Guy Chase, Velma Kingsbury, Betty Stillwell, Joan McKerley, Jacqueline Duffy, Richard Knipes, Miss Katherine Moran, Faculty Adviser.
Third row: Marie Altrui, Robert Tuggey, Mary Ellen Hunt, George Taylor, Donald Murray, Joan Mintzer, Barbara Rich, Phyllis Perkins, Carol Raymond, George Ackley.

Ski Team

Second row: Lindley Squires, Robert Noble, Mr. William K. Root, Faculty Adviser; Robert Howe.

Goodman Root read the following report:

"Interest in skiing increased this year. Fourteen boys tried out for the team; eight were selected.

"In the state meet we placed sixth against ninth a year ago. We also won a dual meet with Springfield by a comfortable margin but lost a heart-breaker to Burr and Burton 375.3 to 375.0.

"Already fairly strong in downhill and slalom, we developed jumping this year with six boys showing good form and distance. We were weak in cross country and this must be improved next year.

"Three boys, George Peck, William Battles, and Lindley Squires, won varsity letters.

"Enthusiasm and good team spirit were characteristic of this team. With six of the eight members returning and several other good prospects coming up, hopes are high for next year. The team plans to get out early and work hard to correct faults, improve weaknesses, and develop a strong, well-balanced team."

Varsity Club

 Second Row: Richard Clifford, Donald Cheney, David Roe, James Guild, Robert Sharrow.
 Third row: Calvin Atwood, Mr. Leo F. Keefe, Faculty Adviser; William Grace, George Pike, Thomas Pease, George Peck, James Vennett, Richard Roe, Paul Horton, Robert Kellogg, Mr. Lloyd E. Flaitz, Faculty Adviser.

"Fellow citizens of the town meetin':

"The Varsity Club under the guidance of Squire Flaitz and Squire Keefe had a very successful year.

"Officers of the club were Ted Munsat, president; Roy Plumley, vice president; and Dick Clifford, secretary-treasurer.

"The outstanding activity of the year was the A. A. Revue presented on February sixth. The Revue depicted a locker room scene with the coaches, and later a football game as seen by the players and coaches. Guy Chase and Ted Munsat did fine jobs at portraying Coaches Flaitz and Keefe. A quartet composed of Tom Pease, Jim Vennett, Richard and Dave Roe sang two songs. Howard Nason, Harold Seward, Ralph Elmore, and George Taylor were the "girl" cheerleaders.

"The highlight of the show was the chorus line of Dick Clifford, John Edgerton, and the cheerleaders. Specialty acts were performed by Ted Munsat, Jim Vennett, Tom Pease, and Norman Lash to top off the morning's program of amusement.

"The Varsity Club at the end of March sponsored the Freshman-Sophomore Tournament which included freshman and sophomore teams from all over Southern Vermont invited to compete in the tournament.

"Always a big treat to the boys at the end of the year is the Varsity Club's annual banquet.

"The club this year bought pins for its members besides purchasing and presenting to the athletic department a sun lamp.

"Ralph Kehoe and Jack Kelly, alumni members of the Varsity Club, were sent boxes of candy during their convalescence from injuries and sickness respectively.

"The Varsity Club's aim this year was to secure enough money to buy a case in which to keep the many trophies which adorn the library."

This concluded the report on this club's activities.

Girls' Leader Corps

Front row: Miss Judith Swift, Faculty Adviser; Elizabeth Ewing, Joan Mintzer, Claire LaCroix, Darleyne Hart, Janice Carlisle.
Second row: Carol Raymond, Ramona Cook, Elizabeth Stillwell, Marguerite Johnson, Rose Pippin.

Mistress Judith Swift, faculty adviser of the Girls' Leader Corps, next gave her report on that organization and it read:

"The Girls' Leader Corps is an organization consisting of twenty members. These girls are chosen for their interest and leadership in the girls' sports program, and their ability and sportsmanship in athletics.

"The leaders of this year's aggregation were President, Darleyne Hart; Vice President, Claire LaCroix; Secretary, Joan Mintzer; Treasurer, Janice Carlisle; Sports Committee Chairman, Cathryn Tennien; Student Council Representative, Bette Ewing.

"For the first time in the history of the Girls' Leader Corps the members had special pins. A rotating trophy for girls' homeroom basketball competition was purchased and its use initiated. The group has had a very successful year in organizing and carrying out an active sports program."

Driver Training Course

Next Mr. Crossman arose to tell us about the new course of driver training.

"In September Rutland High School was among the first high school in the State of Vermont to include this course in its curriculum. Fifteen students in the first semester group completed the course, and successfully passed their road tests. Of these, six have taken the state examination and have received their licenses. They are Herbert Bryant, Marilyn Murphy, Mary Jane Borah, Elise Plude, Thomson Fagan, and Ben Muhlberg.

"After the completion of their book work they advanced to actual driving. The emphasis was placed on different maneuvers which contributed to successful driving. Rather than speed, these included such things as backing the automobile, turning around, and the art of shifting. The class has had practical experience on the road without any accidents.

"The second semester began with twenty-two students enrolled. The course has been of great value and it is hoped that student response will be as fine in the future as this year's was."

Front row: Lillian Paul, Elise Plude, Carol Raymond, Elinor Ingalls, Donald Murray, Thomson Fagan, Jacqueline Duffy, John Gleason, Guy Chase, Herbert Bryant.
Second row: Cynthia Taylor, Marilyn Murphy, Mary Jane Borah, Marilyn Trop, Joanne Crosby, Alice Chellis, Patricia Shappy, Kenneth Kibbey, Ernest Priest.
Third row: Shirley Morris, Rachel Rickert, Tilton Richards, Earle Mayo, Mary Jeffords.
Fourth row: Robert Williams, Robert Hesse, George Taylor, Robert Hathaway.

Cheerleaders

Second row: Beverly Lash, Jean Shortsleeves.
Third row: Joan McKerley, Elise Plude, Marjory Perkins.

Mistress Judith Swift next presented her report on the Cheerleaders, those snappy maids who lead the student body in rousing cheers at all of the football and basketball games. Mistresses Elise Plude, Joan McKerley, Joan Mintzer, Marjory Perkins, Beverly Lash, Peggy Gilbert, and Jean Shortsleeves composed the squad. Under Co-Captains Plude, McKerley and Mintzer these girls worked out effective routines and cheers which were an incentive to the athletes and pleased the spectators. The lassies finally wound up the season by cheering at the Southern Vermont Rotary Tournament at the armory the first week in March.

Citizen Contests

 Fourth row: Robert Kellogg, Edward Warner, Paul Horton, Robert Miles, Bernard Ravenna, Manager; Mr. Lloyd E. Flaitz, Coach; Mr. Leo F. Keefe, Assistant Coach.
 *All-State.

Bouncing back from a mediocre 1946 gridiron season the determined 1947 Red Raider pigskin-toters tallied an enviable record of seven victories in a difficult nine-game schedule with top grid machines from New York, New Hampshire, and Vermont.

With only four lettermen back, Captain Eddie Godnick, Halfback Howard Nason, Quarterback George Ackley, and Ted Munsat a lineman, the Raider coaches Flaitz and Keefe had their work cut out for them. Unselfish training, hard work and fine team spirit produced a well coordinated machine which yielded only 39 points on the defense while amassing a total of 146 points on the offense.

After easily defeating the Proctor Phantoms 32-0 in the season's first game, the Raiders met their traditional out-of-state rivals, the usually strong Whitehall Maroons. The game featured vicious defensive tactics by both teams and excellent punting by our sophomore Jim Guild and Martucci, the Whitehall captain. In the waning minutes of the ballgame a swarm of Raider players, Munsat, North, Clifford, Chellis, and Godnick, broke through to tackle Martucci in the end zone for a safety and a 2-0 win for Rutland.

The Raiders defeated Bennington in a night game 20-0; they then went on to their first defeat at the hands of Springfield. The Redmen lost to the Cosmos 13-0.

The Red and White snapped in to the win column, trouncing a strong Burlington team 13-0. Godnick was the workhorse for the Raiders, scoring both touchdowns. The Redmen held the Seahorses to 95 yards gained in rushing.

Bellows Falls and Brattleboro were the Raiders' next victims. Bellows Falls went down 19-6 with touchdowns scored by Godnick, Nason, and Guild. The Redmen ran over Brattleboro the following Saturday 33-0; Godnick was outstanding for the Raiders.

The Raiders' second downfall came when Claremont beat them in a photo-finish 20-15. Godnick was the chief man on offense and defense.

The big game, long-awaited by both players and fans, finally came off on Armistice Day. The Redmen had been steadily improving throughout the season and it was a determined bunch of boys that took the field that afternoon. They showed it when they responded to the opening kickoff and immediately went for their first score—Nason going over on a line back. The second quarter was dominated by the performance of Nason and the Raiders' passing attack. M. S. J. took to the field in the third quarter positive they would yet make up the six point deficit. They advanced three-quarters of the field before Nason wisely intercepted a pass in the end zone which broke the Academy gridsters' backs and they never threatened again. The Red and White scored again when Ackley went over on a quarterback sneak late in the final stanza. The Raiders finally trotted off the gridiron with a 12-0 victory over their city rivals.

Although eleven lettermen were graduated this year, Coach Flaitz is hopeful of a good season next year when he will have back Dick Clifford, Roy Plumley, Jim Vennett, Paul Horton, John Edgerton, Tom Pease, and Jim Guild, all lettermen.

Varsity Basketball

 Second row: Dudley North, Theodore Munsat, James Guild, Robert Perkins, Robert Miles, Mr. Leo F. Keefe, Coach.

After last year's championship, Raider fans were pessimistic because Coach Keefe had lost all of his championship five. Dick Davidson, Bill Grace, and Dave Roe were returning lettermen who were fairly certain of starting berths. Dave Newton was brought up from the Jay-Vees to fill a guard spot, and Irv Shappy, who had played very well in home room basketball, was given a chance to occupy a forward position. Thus Coach Keefe had his starting five. After weeks of diligent practice this quintet with Ted Munsat, Roy Plumley, Jim Vennett, Bob Sharrow, and Jim Guild came to their pre-season game with Bellows Free Academy.

The Keefesters beat the Academy boys, and went on to take one from Whitehall and another from Spaulding. They were set back twice, two nights in a row, by Cathedral and Bennington 35-32 and 30-26 respectively. The Raiders then beat Plymouth, Massachusetts at the Boston Arena 48-12. The Alumni, composed of last year's five and other star players, took the Redmen 45-37. Cathedral, who had previously beaten the Red and White, fell to the power of the Redmen 40-31 with Shappy's fourteen points and Roe's nine Going into the Southern Vermont League the Raiders' chances were uncertain but there was no doubt in anyone's mind about the Raiders' strength when the season ended. They had licked every team at least once, and Brattleboro, Springfield, Windsor, and Hartford fell twice before the Redmen. The Raiders finished the league in a tie for first place with West Rutland who also had a record of eleven and three.

The Redmen did not breeze through the league like last year's team but they had some well-earned victories.

In the first Springfield game the Raiders were ahead by ten points at the half but the Cosmos came back and were ahead by four points with three minutes left to play. The Raiders found themselves and went on to win 46-41.

Talking It Over

COACH KEEFFE—CAPTAIN DAVIDSON

The Redmen sparked by Dick Davidson took the second M. S. J. game right out of the hands of the Academy boys. After a see-saw battle the Saints went out in front by seven points with a minute left to play. Davidson and Guild connected with long shots and Sharrow dumped in a foul shot to bring the Raiders within two points. As the game ended Davidson went up for a lay up and was fouled. Dick became the hero of the night by sinking both foul shots and in the overtime went on to score four more points. The final score was 38-37 in favor of the Redmen.

After the league ended the Redmen were selected to compete in the Southern Vermont Tournament. They met Brattleboro and were downed 43-33. The Bratts were hot and the Raiders were behind all the way.

The Red and White's record for the season was seventeen wins and seven losses for a .750 record.

Considering the lack of veteran material, this year's record was outstanding. The boys gave everything they had and only lack of experience kept them from repeating as State Champions.

The following seniors will be lost by graduation: Capt. Dick Davidson, Bill Grace, Irv Shappy, Dave Newton, and Ted Munsat. However, with three lettermen of experience in Dave Roe, Bob Sharrow and Jim Guild, prospects for next year are more optimistic than was true at the beginning of the past season.

Jay-Vee Basketball

The Junior Varsity quintet, under the mentorship of Coach Lloyd Flaitz, enjoyed a successful season, winning seventeen and dropping four in a rugged schedule.

The future varsity tossers received their first setback, after seven consecutive victories, at the hands of a strong Springfield team on the latter's home court. In the return engagement at the Armory the Junior Raiders set the pace for the entire game only to lose by one point in the last second of play. The Redmen split with Whitehall and Brattleboro for their only other defeats.

Outstanding members of the squad throughout the current season were Bob Perkins, John Baldwin, Jim Guild, Bob Miles, Ed Warner, Bud McConnell, Carleton Clifford, Fritz Richmond, and Walt Johnson.

Freshman Basketball

The Freshman basketball squad had a mediocre season this year winning but two games out of eleven. Coach James Canary had good material in Bob Miles, Bud McConnell, Dick Grace, George Green, Dave Mack, Charles Dunklee, Bill Goldman, Bill Frappier, Joe Dolan, and Roger Frisch. The squad's two lone victories were over Middletown Springs and West Rutland. In the Freshman-Sophomore Tournament they were put out in the first round by Woodstock. The score was 34-32.

Miles and McConnell played Jay-Vee this year and give great promise for future high school fives.

 Fourth row: Mary Jane Anderson, Marjory Perkins, Theodora Phillips, Janet Shortsleeves, Doris White, Virginia Wood, Shirley Tryon, Doris Lind, Mary Jeffords.

Mistress Judith Swift proceeded at the moderator's request to read her report on Girls' Hockey.

"As the leaves began to fall, and just before the first snow flurries appeared, the hockey field was swarming with maids from all four classes. Hockey sticks were clacking and clashing together as the Class Hockey teams challenged one another.

"Field Hockey is a favorite fall sport with the maidens. Not only is it fun to play, but it also fosters desirable character traits in its players. It teaches good sportsmanship, cooperation, and fair play.

"Due to the efforts of the Girls' Leader Corps, this year's hockey schedule surpassed those preceding it in various ways. There were more practices, more games, and an accurate record of attendance was kept, which insured a proper distribution of numerals and letters.

"This year the seniors, who have had their eyes on the hockey letters for three years, finally succeeded in obtaining them by winning two games and tying the third."

The results of this season's games are as follows:

| | WON | LOST | TIED | TOTAL |

Girls' Basketball Class Teams

The class basketball teams were chosen by the Girls' Leader Corps Basketball Committee this year with the assistance of the instructor of Physical Education, Mistress Judith Swift. In order to qualify for the class teams the lassies had to attend a required number of practices and, of course, be outstanding in the sport.

To represent each class twelve girls were chosen; these girls were known as the "First Twelve." Each class played each of the other class teams making a total of three games for each. A victory gave a team 2 points, a tie 1 point, and a loss 0 points. The class having the highest number of points at the end of the season was the champion.

The senior lassies having amassed 6 points were the school champions. For defeating the other three classes they received basketball letters. The sophomores were second with 4 points, the freshmen were third with 2 points, and the juniors finished the series with 0 points. Although the season was rather lengthy the lassies felt it was really worth the time they put into the games.

SENIORS—CHAMPIONS

JUNIORS

SOPHOMORES

Second row: Beverly Gould, Patricia Shappy, Alice Chellis, Doris White, Jacqueline Daley, Mary Jefford.

FRESHMEN

Second row: Virginia Wood, Elinor Soulia, Gloria Pratico, Jane Perkins, Beverly Holcomb, Joan LaCroix.

Track

At the beginning of the 1948 track season Coach Howard Douglas was faced with the task of getting into shape a formidable track squad. With such stars as Don Sherburne, Bob Kingsbury, Dick Laird, Bill Bidgood, Larry Duval, Dick Knipes and Bob Willson gone from last year's track team, and with eight returning veterans, Coach Douglas in four weeks developed and put together a well-balanced team.

On April 22nd, 23rd, and 24th Coach Douglas held an Inter-Class meet to determine what boys were available for certain events. The seniors by a scant margin of one point, beat the juniors with the sophomores and freshmen following.

A boy makes his place on the squad by faithfully attending daily practice. It takes the average boy from two to three years to acquire real skill or endurance for competition.

Keene met the Raiders on May 5th and was defeated, after a close meet, 62-55. Don Cheney and Dave Roe were the stars on that occasion.

Don Cheney took first in the 100 and a second in the 220. Dave Roe was first in the 440 and 220, and placed second in the pole vault. Richard Roe took first in the high hurdles and a second in the lows. 'Irv' Shappy tossed the javelin 143 feet to place first in that event and won second position in the discus. Roy Plumley took first in the discus and second in the shot put. Jim Vennett was second in the high hurdles. Ralph Elmore's second in the mile and third in the 440 aided the Raider's cause. George Pike took a first, and Bill Grace tied for second in the high jump and broad jump respectively.

Other point getters were: Dick Eno with a third in the 100, Harold Seward with a third in the shot put, and Bob Beauchamp who notched third place in the pole vault.

All the boys who placed in the Keene meet are expected to carry the brunt of the load for the Raider's track team.

George Miller was the manager for the year; he was assisted by Richard Hudson. Scrub managers were Fred Smith, Ralph Crippen, Ronald Lucas and Bryce Lundell.

As The Talisman goes to press, the Raider Track Squad looks as if it was on its way to another state title this year.

Baseball

Front row: William Grace, Richard Clifford, George Ackley, Howard Nason, Captain; James Guild, Robert Kellogg, Richard Davidson, William Thomas.
 Second row: Carleton Clifford, Ray Franzoni, William Battles, Robert Miles, Paul Horton, Robert Perkins, Robert McConnell, Mr. Lloyd E. Flaitz, Coach.

With eight returning lettermen and a weakened mound staff, Coach Lloyd Flaitz had only two weeks to whip a good working baseball combination into shape.

The Raiders went through lengthy practice sessions in order to get ready for their first game with Whitehall.

The Redmen met the Whitehall Maroons on April 23rd, and whipped them 5 to 2. Howie Nason's homer in the first game helped to get things on the road. The Raiders got another in that inning and two more in the second. Another run in the fourth gave them their five run total. Dick Davidson was the hitter of the day with four bingles in four trips to the plate.

The Raiders swamped Fair Haven in the first game 7-17, but the improved "Slatetowners" came back nine days later to give the Redmen a battle, but they lost 6-5. Errors were the chief difficulty for the Borahmen in both games. Bill Grace was the big gun in the Raider attack in both games.

Poultney succumbed to the Raider power 6-2 with both teams collecting but five hits. Bill Thomas' two-run homer was the high point of the afternoon.

Burlington ended the Redmen's winning streak at four when they downed the Raiders 5-2. The Raiders were limited to two hits, one being a triple by Guild which drove in one run. An error in the same inning sent Guild home.

Due to The Talisman's printing deadline the remaining games of the season could not be recorded.

The irresistible power of pictures is felt in class record books just as surely as in magazines and other publications. Pictures . . . interesting, life-like and well-reproduced . . . vitalize the yearbook and serve as visual reminders of student life—as it was lived! Faithfully reproducing these pictures through the process of photo-engraving is the job of the Basil Smith System—specialists in publication engraving. Pictorial power to the maximum is assured by our modern facilities, years of experience and well-earned reputation.

A GUIDE TO OUTSTANDING CLASS RECORD BOOKS

Every yearbook staff should have this valuable creative aid. A continuing catalogue full of sparkling layouts and helpful information on designing yearbooks. Reserve your copy now.
